CHRONICLES

What a fellowship! What a joy divine!

BY PASTOR CHRIS HILLIARD

“The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms...”

Deuteronomy 33:27

Back in 1887 Anthony Showalter penned the chorus to that great hymn of faith. The chorus was inspired by Deuteronomy 33:27. It was a text he had been pondering as he sought to write an encouraging word to two former students of his. Both were men that had recently lost their wives. He then sent the chorus to hymnist Elisha Hoffman who would write the three stanzas. Together they gave us a great song about the fellowship we have with Jesus and the security we have in Him. It truly is a sweet fellowship. And our fellowship with Jesus is what makes our fellowship with each other such a blessing. The Body of Christ is made up of many parts that needs each part.

The Easter season was filled with great fellowship opportunities. I enjoyed the various worship experiences and fellowship events that took place. But it doesn't have to end now. As we enter the spring and summer seasons, make your fellowship with Jesus and with the family of faith a priority. Don't neglect the "assembling together" (Hebrews 10:25) but lean into it more. And don't make it simply a Sunday ritual. Spent time outside the corporate worship hour together. As you do you will be "mutually encouraged by each other's faith" (Romans 1:12).

In Christ,

Pastor Chris
