What's Your Emergency?

BY PASTOR CHRIS HILLIARD

“I will lift up my eyes to the mountains; From where shall my help come?” - Psalm 121:1 (NASB)
Have you ever called 911? If you have, then you know one of the first questions they will ask is “What’s your emergency?” Once they learn what it is, they will then let you know, “Help is on the way.” If you have ever been in an accident or had an injury where those words were said to you, you know how comforting they can be. Sometimes, just knowing the help is coming is enough to keep you going. Fred Rogers used to share that when he was a child and saw scary things on the news his mother would say to him “Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.” That is often true. Though I wish it were even more true than it is. Sometimes, human helpers can seem scarce. But there is One who always stands ready to help. One who is always able to help.

The psalmist writes in Psalm 121 that he lifts his eyes and looks for help and wonders aloud where it will come from. Who will come to save him? In verse two he declares, “My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.” Not only is the Lord coming to help, but He is the sovereign all-powerful Lord who created all things. Who or what can stop Him from saving? What is too big that He can’t handle? Nothing is impossible with Him (Luke 1:37).

So, dear friend, pour through the Scriptures in your hour of need. Pray through the Spirit in the Name of Jesus in your moment of pain. Cry to the heavens when the anxiety, addiction, or dilemma knocks on the door of your home or heart. He is near. He hears. And He can help. Listen quietly and patiently. Let the still small voice of God speak loudly in your soul and walk you through the maze and haze. You’ll make it. You’ll see. And, He often has other helpers on the way too*. Let Him use them to help you.

Blessings,
Pastor Chris
