Women's Monday Morning Bible Study Update:

To all spiritual prospectors who are digging for gold!

It is almost time for our "Digging for Gold" Bible Study to begin. For this session, we will be studying the book of Nehemiah. Nehemiah is filled with wonderful spiritual lessons. In this Old Testament book we learn how to restore and rebuild the brokenness of our lives, but also how to be used by the Divine Builder. The depth and richness of Nehemiah's memoirs give us a new understanding of how God can make a somebody out of nobody. We will begin September 16 from 9:30-10:30 in the Small Fellowship Hall. It would be a great opportunity to encourage a sister, friend or neighbor to join us. For more information, please contact Jeanne Poole (Class Administrator) or Kristy Todd (Teaching Leader).

SAVE THE DATE!

Sept. 22: Homecoming Sunday! Mickey & Martha Cogdill will be our guests of honor and Mickey will be preaching!

A catered meal will be following the service.

If you would like to host Martha & Mickey Cogdill the evening of September 21st before he speaks on Sunday, please contact the church office!

JOY Group will begin its fall season on September 10th in the LARGE FELLOWSHIP HALL at 11AM. Kristy Todd will be giving the program entitled "Oh, The Places You'll Go!" Vickie Curtis will be providing the meal. Please contact Trillis if you would like to join the JUST OLDER YOUTH for this special occasion!
